

Our services in Stoke-on-Trent

Revival is a not-for-profit agency that helps vulnerable people maintain their health and independence and be warm, safe and supported in their homes.

We are part of the Staffordshire Housing Group and our services are supported and funded by local councils, the NHS and a range of other agencies.

What we offer

- Low-cost handyman service, for small DIY-type jobs around the home.
- Specifying and overseeing home improvements, repairs and adaptations, all carried out by trusted contractors with support from our technical officer.
- Affordable secured and unsecured loans for home repairs, between £2,000 to £30,000 available.
- Making someone's home safe for them to return to after a stay in hospital.
